Charlie

You have a sense of humor, (especially in Miss Scott's) class keep it up and you will always have fun.
Best of luck

Hart McKeever

Charlie -
I can't believe there have gone by and that we are graduating. I have really enjoyed being friends and am glad we are going to the same school and will be able to continue our friendships. Best of luck always

Ken

Tex:

It's been great going to high school with you,
and playing football too.
See you at O.V.
Love, Harold

Charlie - It's really been a lot of fun in Scott's class this year. Especially giving her a bad time. Keep up the good work. Best of luck in the future
and every thing you do.

Charles,
I'll always remember you from algebra and Journalism.
I really enjoyed helping you in algebra. Thank you for your friendship and advice.

Charlie -
It's kind of too bad
I'm leaving this summer cause I had a lot more fun this summer. You are a really great guy and I of the few friends that I have in the end. Always remember the fun and I'll celebrate when you come back and you will hard at it cause you have a lot long way of ability. Good luck in everything you do.

Charlie - Well I think

I could write an entire book on what we've done these past years. I sure hope we can throw some now soon!

You a simply wonderful person with the greatest sense of humor.

In whatever you do I'm sure that you'll go for it. I believe you will be a great success. I think in future years you and Peter, Terry and Bruce and I ought go out a few times for old times sake.

Here's to that woman and cold beer.

Good luck in all you do.

Cholly priceless! you're know how I feel about you so I won't go on and on about it. But I've really enjoyed you and I'm gonna miss you. Love, Dottie

I can't really remember when I have not known you and if I could I wouldn't be able to say I was having any fun. I hope we have a lot more fun in the future. Love, Boaz P.D.

Charles -

Well, good ole Mrs.' 66 is about over - and I know you're looking forward to good times at OU next year. (I'm sure you'll have them!!) You're really a great guy - with a lot of ability and potential. I'm sure you'll make the most of these assets. Best of luck & have fun this summer!

Charles - You're a really funny guy and a good friend. I've loved knowing you and I'll always remember our good times in Scott's class. Be a good for next year and have a good time. (I'm not worried about that!) Stay happy and may you have only the happiest of trails.

Charlie —

Well it looks like old C.H.L. is about rid of us for good. I'm looking forward to seeing a lot of you down at O.S. You're really a great guy and have one of the quickest wits I've ever seen.
I wish you the best of luck in whatever you decide to do. I know you'll do it well whatever it is.

Charles -
 you have been one of my closest friends ever since junior high and now high school.

Be good next year
 I am Carl
 Sr. '66

A bulwark of strength through co-operation, Enid High School has excelled in intellectual, physical, cultural, and humanitarian areas. These fields represent the four great cornerstones of Enid High tradition, supported by the student body, faculty, administration, and community. This quality has made Enid High School a symbol of excellence . . .

Fresh personalities, ideas contribute zest

Dawning of the 1966 school term, brought many new additions, structures and fads. New faculty faces appeared, including the newly organized position of school nurse. Three sections of new classrooms were added to the south end of the building. North Central Association Visitation Committee toured the school in the spring to evaluate facilities.

ENID HIGH BAND contributes its part in honor of these great Enid educators by forming the one hundred and fifty-seven years.

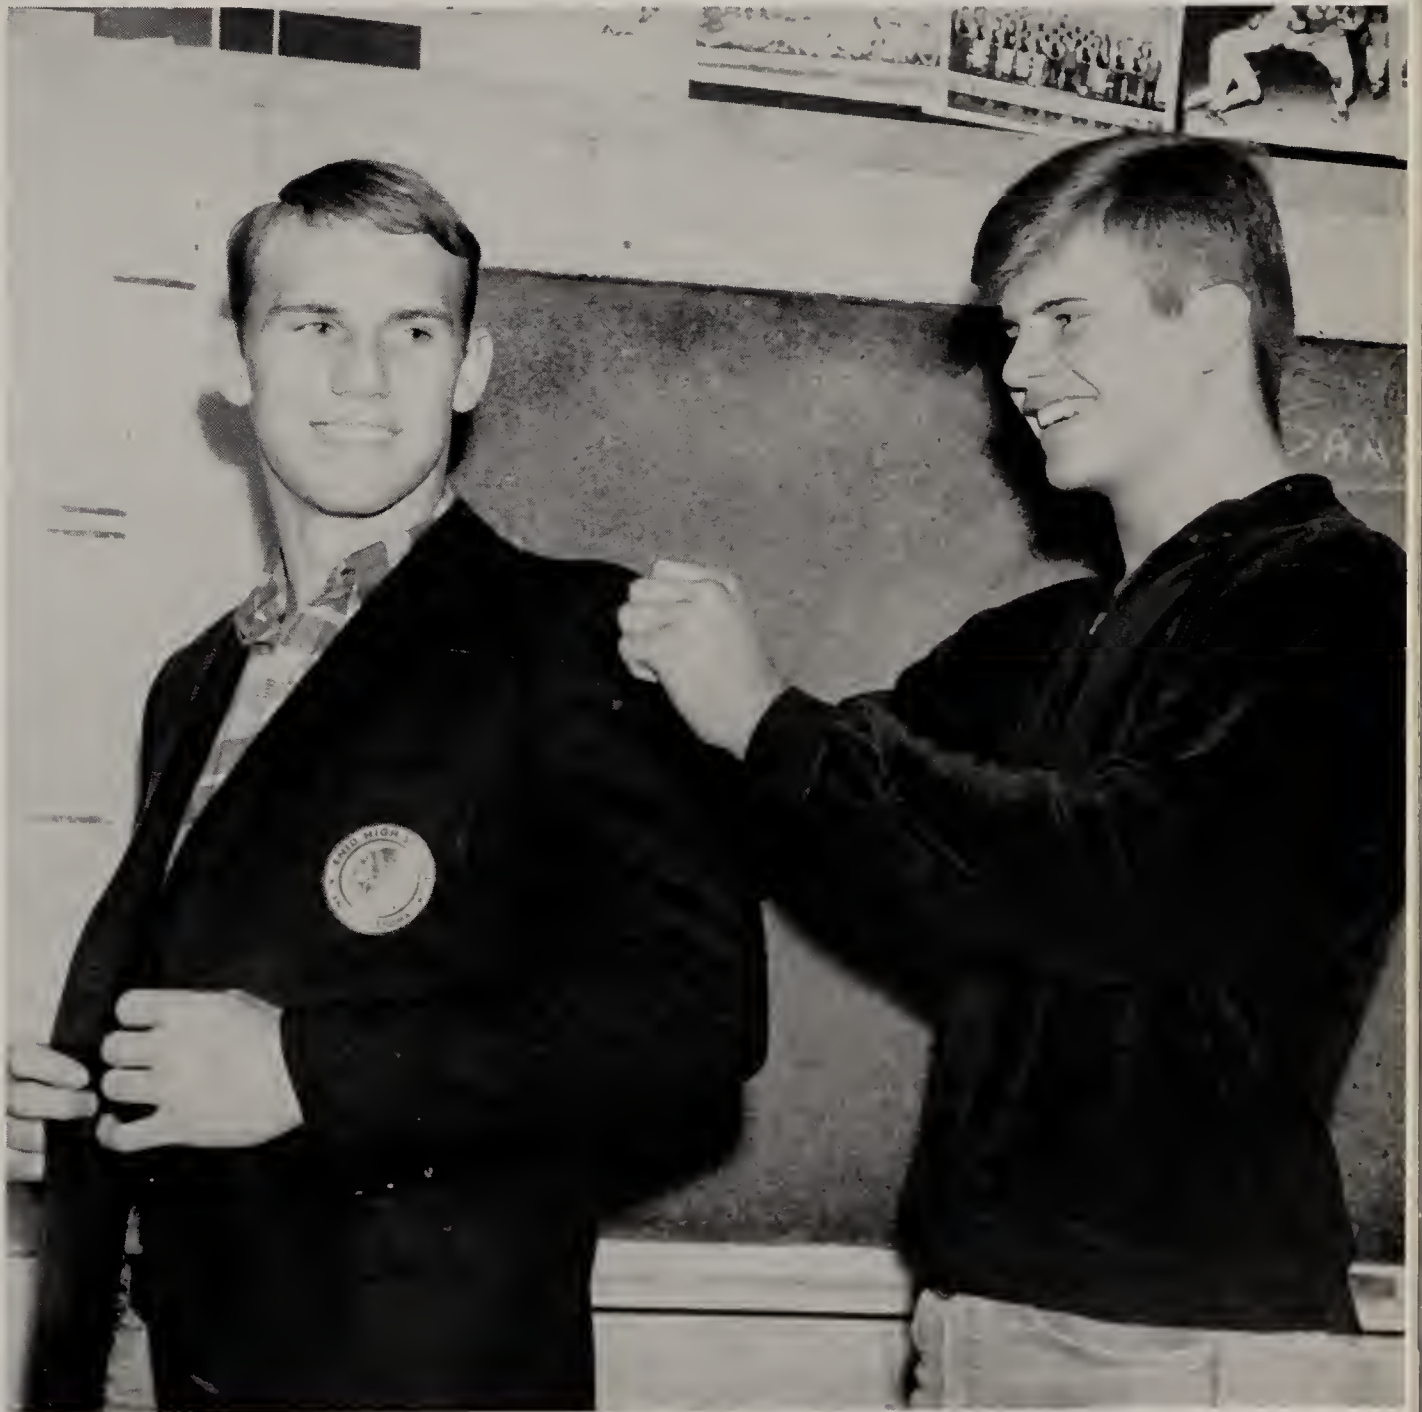

Dedicated service points

To continuing progress

Respectful appreciation for traditionally fine qualities and excellent service combined with new innovations to the school to give a new dimension to Plainsman thinking and a re-evaluation of what things are important. Jack Webb presented the Plainsman head tie clasps to the men on behalf of Enid High students. All four men were former secondary school principals and former Enid High coaches. The awards represented one hundred and fifty-seven years of service.

PRINCIPAL JACK WEBB presents Mr. DeWitt Waller with one of the Plainsman tie clasps in honor of the event.

Board and administration work harmoniously

ENID BOARD OF EDUCATION: Dr. Milburn Carey, Leonard Edwards, Wes Mounts, Mrs. Margaret Buvinger, Allie Paine, John Thorpe, president; O. T. Autry, superintendent of Enid Schools, and Mr. Cleo Fisher.

BOARD OF EDUCATION works many long hours to put school programming into action to advance educational achievement.

Dynamic superintendent heads Enid schools

Throughout the school year many innovations in education were initiated into the Enid school system through the efforts of Mr. O. T. Autry, school superintendent. Due to his progressive planning, elementary education and adult training greatly advanced.

This year Enid voters overwhelmingly approved the building of a vocational-technical school to better balance the curriculum for students wishing on-the-job training or supplementary vocations. This school was available for students outside of the Enid district and adults wishing retraining.

Members of the Board of Education voted unanimously in their May 3 meeting to name the new vocational-technical school, The O. T. Autry Vocational-Technical Center.

Mr. Autry was also responsible for the new personnel added to the school program. Three registered nurses divided their time between the twenty-three Enid Schools. An elementary counselor and a speech therapist were added for grade school children. Cherokee Park Special Education School and adult education completed the extensive school plan.

As his second year as superintendent of schools passed, Mr. Autry saw preliminary plans of the beginning put into reality.

MR. O. T. AUTRY, school superintendent, initiates many ideas into Enid's school curriculum.

MR. AUTRY speaks with Leonard White, Blackwell, Allen Robson, Ponca City, Tom Sullivan, Stillwater, Oklahoma State Department, concerning Title I.

Webb leads by tactful but firm suggestion

Marking the second year as principal of E.H.S., Mr. Jack Webb recalled fun and advancements in the 1965-1966 school term.

Mr. Webb worked conscientiously throughout the year with all faculty members. His pleasing personality and eagerness to help made him popular with teachers and students.

The beginning of the year was marked by the victory of the state football championship for the second consecutive year, a feat never before duplicated. E.H.S. soared high in student awards and group achievements in the various competitions throughout the year.

In March, the North Central Visitation Committee toured Enid High. A committee representing the North Central Association visits member schools or schools desiring membership every seven years to determine whether standards set by the association are being met.

The second year as principal proved quite eventful for Mr. Webb, and under his careful guidance and leadership, students prospered. As the year drew to a close, Enid High glowed in the bright light of an outstanding academic year.

THROUGHOUT THE SCHOOL year Mr. Jack Webb wisely directs curriculums and activities.

GENE MAUK AND Dal New-som rehash golf scores which Jack Webb apparently questions.

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT PLAYS an important role in carrying out school testing programs and placement with directors, Mr. Jere Gigoux, Mrs. Betty Rohla, Mr. Don Bloom and Mrs. Nelle McCreary.

Mauk diligently serves to fullest extent

With a clear understanding of problems at hand and a willingness to find the solutions, Mr. Eugene Mauk began the 1965-66 term with vivid anticipation and optimism.

Being assistant principal at Enid High School carried with it varied duties. Mr. Mauk served students with counseling and a sympathetic ear. He organized schedules and worked closely with Mr. Webb and members of the guidance department.

Mr. Mauk was born in Enid and returned here to complete his schooling at Phillips University, graduating with a B.S. degree in Science. While teaching in Enid he returned to Oklahoma State University to receive his master's degree in Education Administration.

Summertime drew Mr. Mauk and his family to the beauty of Oklahoma outdoors and nearby lakes and resorts where they could exercise their love for water skiing and boating.

Love for his students and a remarkable sense of fair play made Mr. Mauk popular with students and teachers alike. Mr. Mauk marked the second year of his assistant principalship a success.

MR. GENE MAUK, assistant principal, devotes many hours to students.

Enid High Science Program Honored Nationally

Enid High School was among ten secondary schools commended by the American Association of Physics Teachers for the "demonstrated excellence of their physics programs" on April 7, 1966, when it was announced nationally that the school was being honored with a special certificate, one of ten chosen, on the basis of geographic region and size, for the excellence of their physics teaching.

Dr. Richard S. Fowler, University of Oklahoma Regional Counselor for the Regional Counselors in Physics, made the presentation to the school in April.

This is the eighth year such awards have been made, and Enid High School is the only school in Oklahoma which has received this award. Jim Smeltzer is instructor in Physics.

INSTRUCTOR JIM SMELTZER explains piece of the newest innovation in scientific equipment to Brenda Huffman, Sharon Close, Bruce Storm and Cynthia Langford.

Staff provides efficient school maintenance

Efficient maintenance required a co-operative, conscientious staff which determined how the institution functioned. Twenty-four hours a day these men and women diligently cared for the needs of two thousand Enid High students. Daily the cafeteria staff provided meal service for the same multitude. Acres of floor space remained spotlessly clean, and desks somehow survived their frequent use with the constant care of the staff. Thus Enid High operated orderly and effectively throughout 65-66.

"Pride of E. H. S." marches on to victory from EARLY RISING BAND members manage to keep eyelids open as they load buses for competition at Norman Band Day.

With desire as their motive the 'Pride of E.H.S.' marched on to victory. Whether it was the victory of an individual's effort or supporting a victorious football or basketball team, the band excelled. Beginning early August, the band worked, never letting up until its final performance at commencement.

On cool fall mornings the band was on the practice field drilling for football games. Enid football fans enjoyed these performances and showed their appreciation through enthusiastic ovations and comments after every game. During the season's first football game, Linda Keck was crowned Band Queen by president John Baird. Another half-time featured the eight Enid High twirlers in solos and precision routines. From the patriotic pre-game ceremonies to the impressive half-time performances, the band put excellence into producing inspiration for the team to go to victory.

April 14 the Plainsmen band held their annual spring Symphony, Song and Swing Concert as a tribute to the many parents and Enid citizens who support the band in all endeavors.

practice to Tri-State: Enid to Memphis

April 14 the Plainsmen band held their annual spring "Symphony, Song, and Swing Concert," as a tribute to the many parents and Enid citizens who support the band in all their endeavors. The eighty-member Symphonic band presented "March With Trumpets," "Festive Overture" and "Polka and Fugue." The larger Concert band delighted the audience with "Dixie Melodies" and "Themes From Italian Movies."

The concert proved to be just one of many activities. Traditionally, Enid was host to the Tri-State Music Festival with over 11,000 contestants and judges. On May 5 the band entered the precision marching contest and competed again the next day in concert playing. The week was climaxed by the Million Dollar Parade as bandsmen from over the nation turned Enid into a gala of colors.

Band members made their last formal appearance in the Memphis, Tennessee Cotton Carnival before thousands of spectators. Here they marched in two parades, toured the city's historical sections, and joined in the carnival spirit.

Graduating meant leaving behind many memories for a senior band member, but nothing could ever replace the values gained.

Versatile mixed chorus presents varied

TARY RUZEK STEALS student talent assembly with "Wouldn't It Be Lovely" from the hit Broadway musical "My Fair Lady."

Eighty-five beautifully modulated voices produced the sound creating many assemblies and entertainments throughout the year . . . these were the voices of the Enid High Mixed Chorus.

This chorus made its debut in the Thanksgiving Assembly. They presented, to the student body in their program, many numbers from the first Thanksgiving.

Christmas brought with it various performances for the chorus. They were given the honor, during this season, of singing for several of the civic clubs in Enid. They relived the deep spiritual meaning of Christmas in the traditional assembly presented on the Enid High stage.

The climax of the year was the "Time to Sing" program produced by the vocal music department. In this concert these well-trained voices performed several degrees of opera and deviated to the lighter Broadway musicals.

programs for school and community

Scales of harmony floated from the Enid High School Auditorium on May 3, 8:00 p.m., as the Vocal Music Department presented their annual concert from the world of opera.

The program was a combination of the talents of the Boys' Glee Club, Girls' Glee Club, Girls' Chorus, and Mixed Chorus, focused on one central theme . . . weaving musical magic.

Several students were especially gifted with operatic voices. As a result, the director, Mrs. Maurine Priebe, selected music from the realms of grand, light, and comic opera; operetta; musical plays and Broadway shows.

Audiences were captivated by Lucia de Lammermoor, and Rigoletto. But all was not opera. The mood deviated to segments of music from My Fair Lady, Chocolate Soldier, and The Merry Widow.

Highlighting the performance was the crowning of Chorus Queen Dixelyn Fleming by King Bill Gau. Royal attendants were Kathy Clinesmith, Jim Burnett, Sondra Grantz, John Smith, Fran Russell, James Krupp, Marilyn Bryson and Major Sargent.

Girls' Chorus makes harmonious blends

The Girls' Chorus, made up of sophomore, junior, and senior members, engaged in singing appearances throughout the year. A feeling of profound gratitude engulfed the students during Thanksgiving as the girls sang selections of patriotic songs. The Christmas season carols re-echoed through the halls of E.H.S. Along with almost a thousand other Enid students, they sang at the Christmas Vespers. For an effective performance the girls' chorus sang such numbers as "Some Enchanted Evening," "Sympathy" and "Moonbeams," characterizing the musical selections presented at the spring concert. Honors received at Tri-State and the program for May Fete festivities crowned the gay and glorious year for the Girls' Chorus.

STRAINS OF RELIGIOUS carols echo throughout the school in accompaniment to the Christmas tableau.

E. H. S. vocalists entertain civic groups

CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY OFFERS a variety of entertainment ranging from the height of religion to fantasy.

With focus on showmanship, the Enid High Vocal Music Department sang their way through civic programs, contests and student assemblies. Under the direction of Mrs. Maurine Morrow Priebe, the choruses excelled as they performed at the various civic clubs and entertained with such favorites as "Hi Neighbor" and "Blue Velvet." The Vocal Department was featured on the Christmas assembly and provided special music throughout the year.

The combined efforts of the Girls' Glee Club, Girls' Chorus, Mixed Chorus and the Boys' Glee Club enchanted many audiences this year. During Tri-State the three hundred and forty-seven members of the department consistently received superior ratings throughout the three-day contest. Members entered solos, ensembles and chorus groups for the year's climax.

On the night of May 3, the curtains went up on the vast and entertaining "World of Opera." Here the scene opened on the gala moods of the Boys' Glee Club, Girls' Glee Club, Girls' Chorus, and Mixed Chorus presenting their annual spring concert to a full house.

Many vocal students were gifted with the truly rare operatic voice thus giving them the opportunity to display their talents from classical grand opera to light and comic opera. Gilbert and Sullivan and Lerner and Lowe came alive in numbers from musical plays and popular Broadway shows.

Audiences were captivated with songs from My Fair Lady and Rigoletto.

Climaxing the evening's performance was the crowning of the 1965-66 Chorus Queen and King with their royal attendants.

Symphonic sound elevates cultural level

Vibrant strings of forty-five orchestra students re-echoed throughout the activities of Enid High School's orchestra. Talent and determination, combined with effort, produced one of the school's finest cultural groups.

Mr. Eugene Griffin, leader, spent many long hours developing the orchestra to their fullest capacity in discipline and artistry.

A heavy schedule began as Enid was host to the Quad City Orchestra. On March 18 the symphony rated superiors at district contest. Their annual concert, April 14, climaxed the group's work. Tri-State Festival highlighted spring events with members in ensemble and solo competition. These musicians brought merit to themselves and their school.

Hearty male voices vibrate in harmony

Hearty male voices filled the vocal music department when the Boys' Glee Club began to sing. Whether it was a bright marching song or some deeply moving spiritual, these boys gave it a professional quality. A popular entertainment group, the chorus appeared at the Lions, Kiwanis, and Rotary civic clubs. The holiday season gave them ample opportunity to display their talents on the Christmas assembly. As the year neared an end the glee club left graduating seniors with delightful memories of the May Fete. Melodies rang out as they joined with the Girls' Chorus to present their annual concert.

Officers Dee Adamson, president, James Krupp, vice-president, Jim Sweetwood, secretary-treasurer, Mike Fullingim, librarian, and Bill Gau, reporter, led projects to success.

WITH CANDY AND toys in his sack Santa Claus comes to visit Plainsmen during the Christmas Assembly.

"HARVEY," THE IMAGINARY rabbit, makes his grand appearance with his friend Elwood P. Dowd, in the all-school play.

Imaginary rabbit captivates audience

The 1965-66 all school play was presented November 11, under the direction of Mrs. Delyte Poindexter.

Many weeks of hard work developed into the three-act comedy "Harvey." Elwood P. Dowd, a very easy-going fellow, turned his household into near bedlam when he declared he had a six-foot tall, white rabbit for a companion. Veta Simmons, sister of Elwood, and quite on the up and up of social life, made the harsh decision to have Elwood committed to a nearby sanitarium, Chumley's Rest, so he would not interfere with her daughter's protected life. Through varied mysterious happenings it was realized that there just might be this large, white rabbit named Harvey.

The cast included Mike Norman as Elwood P. Dowd, Harvey's pal and friend; Barbara Prentice, as Veta Louise Simmons, the cosmopolitan sister; Le Moine Otjen as Myrtle Mae Simmons, the protected daughter; Fred Henneke as Dr. William Chumley, head of Chumley's Rest; Beverly McIntosh as Betty Chumley, Dr. Chumley's wife; Larry Shirts as Dr. Lyman Sanderson, a young and ambitious doctor at Chumley's Rest; Sam Johnson as Duane Wilson, strong-arm at the sanitarium; Belle Bingham as Miss Kelly, the nurse; Lynn Page as Ethel Chauvenet, a very well-to-do and sophisticated woman; Bill Makosey as Judge Gaffney, long-time friend and counsel of Veta Simmons; Nathan Mitchell as E. J. Lofgren, an easy-going cab driver; and Angela La Salle as Miss Johnson, the Simmons' maid.

Student directors were Nancy Underwood, Act I; Sam Johnson, Act II; Susan Woods, Act III, and Wayne Merry as technical director.

THROUGH THE USE of makeup junior actress Barbara Prentice is transformed into old age by makeup artist Susie Smith.

Seniors prove "Seventeenth" the best

Enid High School Seniors presented their 1965-66 senior play, "Seventeenth Summer," February 3, in the Enid High School auditorium.

Angie, a charming and sensitive girl of seventeen, faced the hardships and joys of growing up. Jack, a friendly and sincere boy of eighteen, accompanied Angie through her search for maturity.

Under the direction of Mrs. Delyte Poindexter, the cast portrayed a true-life story that carried a message to students as well as parents.

Those on the cast were Dixie Fleming, Kitty Morrow; Dottie DeFoe, Angie Morrow; Beverly McIntosh, Mrs. Morrow; Fred Henneke, Mr. Morrow; Carol Creed, Margaret Morrow; Nancy Underwood, Lorraine Morrow; Becky Brandt, Margie; Judy Murphy, Jane; Jim Sweetwood, Jack Duluth; Mike House, Martin Keefe; Charles McDonald, Art; Larry Buller, Fitz; and Richard Scaling, as Tony Becker.

Student directors included Mike Norman, technical director; Penny Painter, Act I; Wayne Merry, Act II; and Susie Smith, Act III.

Thespian troupe possesses many talents

SOPHOMORE GIRLS, Kathy Zahl, Mary Margaret Russell and JoAnn Pearce, captivate audiences in talent assembly with a hobo number.

Enid High School Thespian Troupe 1263 added sixty-six new members to their roster, making a new total of ninety-eight. During the initiation the purpose and history of the National Thespian Society were conveyed to the initiates. The purpose as stated by Mrs. Delyte Poindexter is to promote the advancement of dramatic arts in secondary schools. Following initiation new members and their parents were honored by a reception in the home economics room. Thespian hopefuls were required to earn ten points by being in plays, working on committees, and selling tickets to obtain their membership.

The Thespian convention was held at Oklahoma City Central High School on April 23. In the program were demonstrations and impromptu acting by Thespian members and professionals from other schools.

Highlight of the year was the annual Thespian Play "What Every Woman Knows," by James Barry. The play portrayed the attempt of two older bachelor brothers to get their younger sister, Maggie, married. Through many complications, the theme, "Behind every successful man there is a woman . . .," became evident.

Thespians concluded this year with the annual Senior Banquet held in April to honor graduating Thespians. At this banquet, awards were given to all seniors earning over fifty points. Special awards were given to the seniors with the highest number of points along with the title "Best Thespian" boy or girl. Additional awards were given to the best actress and actor appearing in each play.

Publications lend experience to journalists

Late hours, frenzied last-minute changes, rushed deadlines, . . . all are a part of the normal everyday duties of the QUILL Annual staff. This staff, under the leadership of Miss Ruth Scott, put much time and thought into the preparation of the QUILL. Accuracy and interest were goals to strive for, and the '66 QUILL is the culmination of their efforts.

Midst school activities and harrassed staff the Quill Weekly was published every two weeks under the sponsorship of Miss Ruth Scott and Herbert Seem, printing sponsor. During second semester $20,000 in offset equipment was purchased. The staff climaxed the year's publications with a special senior memories edition.

Journalism club accents communications

DR. CHARLES ALLEN, head of O.S.U. School of Journalism, takes the opportunity on Senior Career Day to stimulate interest in journalism as a profession.

Journalism Club, composed of Newswriting students and those interested in going on in Journalism, met once a month to hear and interview persons.

The club heard many interesting talks. Cheryl Semrad, Miss Oklahoma in 1963, spoke of her travels; Bruce Hinson, WKY news reporter, spoke of his film on Governor Bellmon; and Carolyn Woods, O.S.U. sophomore, talked of her recent experiences in journalism.

When interesting personalities visited Enid, Miss Ruth Scott, sponsor, made every attempt to give students opportunity for mass interviews. A noteworthy interview was with Colorado Senator Peter Domnick, who spoke of his political views and future plans.

Debaters voice pros, cons and rebuttals

TIPS ON COMPULSORY ARBITRATION, topic of '66 debates, are given to Steve Yehle and Alan Poindexter by Mrs. LaNora Bloom.

The Debate Club of Enid High School had another successful year. Many hours of diligent study were spent in preparation for the debate contests. During the year they attended legislative debates at John Marshall, Putnam City, and Northwest Classen high schools.

Legislative debates are carried on in the same manner as debates in the House of Representatives and Senate. These debates gave students the opportunity to observe the procedures of government and participate in lawmaking, thus preparing them to take an active part in government as informed adults. Climaxing the year of legislative debates was the Student Congress, held at the Oklahoma State Capitol building, Oklahoma City.

The debate team excelled in the academic debate contests. They participated in contests at Panhandle A&M, Northwestern State University, Phillips University, Okmulgee Technical School and Central State College. They also attended the regional contest at Oklahoma State University in Stillwater.

Forensic arts priceless in modern society

N.F.L. are the initials of success and leadership at Enid High School. It is well known that these initials stand for the outstanding speech organization—the National Forensic League.

The power that boosted the National Forensic League to soaring heights this year was due to the leadership of its officers: Becky Brandt, president; Brad Buchanan, vice-president; Lamita Riesen, secretary-treasurer; Sam Johnson, reporter; and Rick Foglesong, debate captain. The fuel for N.F.L. was provided by the sponsor, Mrs. LeNora Bloom, whose driving spirit helped make another successful year for the National Forensic League.

To gain membership in N.F.L., twenty-five points must be earned. Ten of these must be earned at contests, while the others may be earned by service points—giving speeches at various clubs and organizations. There are degrees to strive for after attaining membership in N.F.L. These are Degrees of Merit, Honor, Excellence and Distinction. The insignia of N.F.L. is a key with an eye beside the letters NFL. As each degree is earned, different stones are placed in the eye.

The National Forensic League taught young speakers not only how to address an audience, but also taught them the greater lesson of citizenship, character, and service. These things fit the student with all the necessary armament for living a successful life in the United States.

Students pack extra minutes into schedule

MUSCLE-BOUND ROGER BINFORD, Plainsman hero, rushes in to save the day for the Big Blue football team being attacked by defiant opponents.

ATHLETES KENNETH HARRISON and Bruce Newton rightfully admire trophies which they helped win and those they hope some day to achieve.

Aside from the academic life, students also achieved excellence in extracurricular activities. The many hours contributed by students to the school left both school and individuals better and broadened their horizons as much, perhaps, as their formal education. In each fresh encounter, Plainsmen learned to work with others, thus gaining the most important skill, that of working with people in real-life situations.

BRASS TRUMPETS BLARE and thousands of Plainsmen thunder out a re-echoing charge to send the mighty team on to state victory

BAND QUEEN Linda Keck, attendants Mary Elizabeth Pierce and Connie Semrad relive an exciting moment.

.007 AGENTS FROM Big Blue prepare to undermine opponents' defense with spirit and determination.

High spirits, tense moments, break routine

Pep assemblies were loud shouts, skits, "Let'er Rip," and "Here's to Enid High School," but they were more than this. From past to present, the dynamic spirit of the student bodies had girded the foundations of teams providing the mortar binding the walls of co-operation composed of sophomore, junior, and senior members of the student body.

WITH A TEARFUL but proud smile Barbara Baird rushes to give her brother John a sisterly hug after his crowning the band queen.

GUIDANCE COUNSELOR Mr. Jere Gigoux and Sherry Wheeler review plans for Sherry's schedule.

NOT TO BE LED away from the road to victory, the Bravettes present a united front as they spur the team on with "Let'er Rip."

CHEERLEADERS CAROLYN SPECIE, Myrlane Fitzgerald, Margaret Ann Curtis, Susie Field, Madelynn Mabry, Marsha Maxwell and Dana Willhoite give the victory sign as they talk with Coach Duke.

Bravettes, band and team Push Enid fame and spirit

Serving as a megaphone for sports activity, Cheerleaders and Bravettes added unity in sound and spirit to the year's sports events. The Cheerleaders won all blue ribbons at the O.U. clinic. Later, with the success of the football team, they carried out the year's slogan "Plainsmen do it again." Bravettes wore their blues and whites on game day, making rooms a banner of anticipation.

Faculty, students welcome parents to building

STUDENT ELECTIONS SEND scads of ballots to be tallied for eager candidates and supporters by analytical student council sponsor.

Recognizing the vital part of parents in a child's education, the school system holds an evening each year when parents are formally invited to the school to meet the teachers and inspect the facilities. Students in each room act as hosts and hostesses, answering questions and explaining the classroom procedures. In student government, miniature democracies rise and fall each semester as student council representatives are elected.

Ability and vocation draw a parallel

What particular appeal in each ambition it was that challenged students in free time will perhaps never be known. But, perhaps this is possible: many minds, while investigating future job opportunities at Career Day set goals from which patterns of excellence were to be molded, from which destinies of individuals and nations would evolve.

MODERN MOODS OF "Harlem Nocturne" vibrate from the brushes of Rick Foglesong at the drums and Dennis Beard on the tenor sax.

RHYTHM, RHYTHM, RHYTHM taps out with spontaneity from Marsha Maxwell's silver shoes to receptive students.

Football queen reigns amid excitement

From every girl's dream, to one girl's reality, Carolyn Specie was chosen and crowned football queen for 1966. No jewelled crown was given her during the coronation, but rather a battle-scarred football helmet. With beauty for her sceptre she ascended her throne before her victory-bound subjects to reign for an evening on a field and an eternity in memory.

WITH AGILITY AND vigor cheerleader Myrlane Fitzgerald leads Enid's enthusiastic supporters in a traditional Enid High School yell.

EXUBERANT CHEERLEADERS RADIATE superior skill and the infallible talent for drawing ear-splitting spirit from the student body.

Dads relive gridiron days While spurring sons on Dads' night! Fathers showed interest in their sons as they proudly wore their numbers in the blocked section at the John Marshall game. Referees and coaches were probably right and wrong more times simultaneously that night than at any time previously, as the pride-colored eyes of anxious fathers interpreted plays. What a thrill it must have been to see their boys on the field doing what many of them remembered having done in their earlier days.

ONCE DEFEATED BY A "Beat Enid" slogan, Coach Alvin Duke displays a fatal Plainsman secret weapon.

ENID HIGH SONGBIRDS Tary Ruzek, Shari Smith, Fran Russell, and Sharri Russell captivate audiences with faultless harmony.

TEARS OF JOY shimmer in the eyes of Basketball Queen Vicki Boler, as she sits in splendor with her court, Margaret Ann Curtis and Madelynn Mabry.

SPIRITED BASKETBALL PLAYERS, surrounded by cheerleaders, burst through glory ropes into the din of an action-packed game.

PROUD EMBLEMS OF the Enid High Color Guard are advanced before the crowds at all basketball games in Convention Hall.

ENID HIGH'S DAISY MAE, Margaret Ann Curtis, finally captures her L'il Abner, Ken Mendenhall, on Sadie Hawkins Assembly.

Sadie Hawkins Week reverses social pressures

ON THE DAY of the great Sadie Hawkins race, no male in Dog Patch can escape the advances of boy-crazy girls.

More in keeping with a queen's tradition, perhaps, than any other royalty, the basketball queen was crowned on a court, if not in one. Pretty Vicki Boler was crowned basketball queen by Gary Boyle at the U.S. Grant game . . . Although standard procedure with most girls, Sadie Hawkins Week legalized boy-chasing for its seven-day duration. While unheeded, the same rules of good sportsmanship applied as would in any hunt of wild game: give the prey some notice, and first come, first served.

Bible students explore ancient history

Members of the four Bible classes formed clubs to devote more time as a group to their studies of the Bible. Officers were selected and their duties were to obtain guest speakers and interesting films. These programs were presented both for the benefit of the stu-

Council co-ordinates active student life

HOMEROOMS DECORATED AND filled colorful Christmas baskets with food for the Salvation Army and presented them to Major Jack Key.

Student Council was made up of representatives elected by homerooms. The group met once a month during fourth hour to discuss student legislation. Their objectives were to suggest action and consider new projects of general concern. Each member contributed ideas thus enabling the student body to have a voice in its government. Members of the group felt they had achieved the feel of self-government and received administrative respect for ideas presented and the effort carried out.

Homecoming, Open House, Dances, Assemblies, Christmas post office and baskets, and a party for new students and faculty members were projects during the year. The group sponsored a new idea this year by selling "On to State" ribbons for students to accent especially important football games. Students voted to place trash cans around the building to beautify the school. Another important service was annual publication of the student directories.

Scholarship, leadership characterizes NHS

Throughout a year of academic leadership the Errol Kesner Chapter of the National Honor Society created an enthusiasm for scholarship through club projects and membership.

One of the most effective projects sponsored by the society was the College Corner in the Enid High School library. The corner consisted of up to date catalogues for college applications and scholarships. Each hour a member was there to help students procure desired information and solve any additional problems they might encounter.

Qualifications for membership were based on the individual's grades in academic areas, leadership, school service and character. Sophomores were ineligible for membership, but the N.H.S. recognized them with special awards.

The National Honor Society was formed in 1962 for Enid High students, and during the last school year the Enid chapter held the state office of vice-president. This made Enid's effectiveness felt statewide as a leading chapter.

Homecraft stresses readiness for future

GIRLS IN FIRST year home economics classes learn proper serving techniques, modern etiquette and attractive table settings.

Understanding life as it is now and soon will be, is studied in the homecraft classes under the instruction of Mrs. Virginia Unruh and Mrs. Donna Henneke. Each girl planned her dream home for the future complete with plans, furnishings, sheets and kitchen utensils. An imaginary income and approximation of the size of a family was considered. One of the happiest moments in every girl's life is her wedding. Each girl planned her own wedding, including cost of dress, rings and church.

Girls in the homecraft classes will be prepared for the future with plans of having a home and caring for their children.

The Foods Classes learned to can fruits and vegetables with the old-fashioned flavor. Basic study for the first year is nutrition. Second-year students learn to bake pies, cakes, breads, and prepare meats.

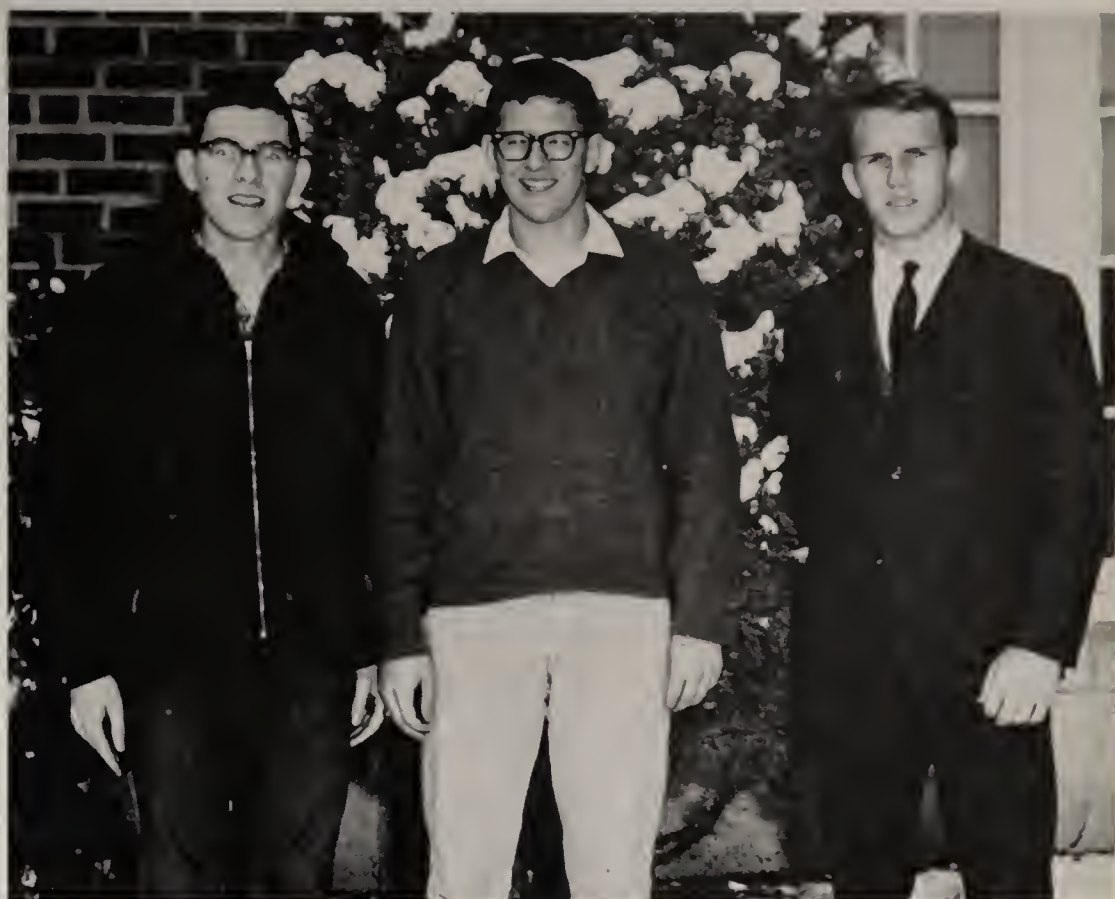

Clothing is also a two-year course. The girls learn tailoring and how to make accessories for their wardrobe.

These courses are subjects that offered essentials for the students' future.

Delta Theta stimulates interest in math

Mathematics is not "all work and no fun." The purpose of Delta Theta, organization for students enrolled in senior mathematics was to promote information and interest in mathematics and related sciences, and to promote fellowship among members. Miss Mary Evelyn Adams, trigonometry, analytics, and algebra teacher, sponsored the group and always promoted interest in any field of mathematics.

Interesting speakers included Dr. Lysle Mason, from Phillips University, who spoke on mathematics in literature; W. D. McCown, from Northern Junior College, who explained matrices; and Mrs. Nelle McCreary, counselor at Enid High, who told of scholarships available to mathematics students. Films seen were both informative and intriguing, subjects being enemies of disease, air travel, and the optical maser. Field trips were enjoyed by all the members, as was the fellowship gained from them. The group visited Champlins and Groendykes, where computers were demonstrated, and they also learned about the stock market and the telephone system, through tours taken of these companies.

DO prepares students for business careers

NEWLY APPOINTED PRESIDENT of O.S.U., Dr. Robert Kamm, speaks to members of DO and DE on vocational opportunities during banquet.

The D.O. Club (Diversified Occupations) offered credits toward graduation and on-the-job training combined with daily classroom work. In the classroom students took consumer economics and the basic structure and language of business. These studies were furthered by classroom lectures and related assignments. Basic techniques of dealing with people were also studied. Students were employed locally in various businesses. The schedule for such a program? Students went to school in the morning and worked during the afternoon and on weekends. A minimum work load of fifteen hours was required for the students to qualify for the program, with some students working up to thirty-five.

Mr. Tom Kennedy, sponsor of the club, made impromptu checks at the places of employment to talk with employers and observe the student in his work. The work students chose varied from auto-mechanics to photographic processing.

To perpetuate good relations with the business community, the Trade and Industrial Club sponsored an annual dinner for the teachers and for their employers.

Palette club: union developed from talent

Palette Club, one of the oldest clubs at Enid High, was organized in 1947 for the purpose of fostering appreciation and interest in the world of art. Those students enrolled in first or second-year art were eligible for club membership.

During the year Palette members had the privilege of hearing many speakers from the field of art. Professor Jim Bray of the Phillips Art Department spoke on commercial art in business today. Slides were shown by Mrs. Robert Simpson on her recent tour of European museums and architecture.

In January Professor John Randolph spoke on techniques used in painting oils and landscapes. Later he guided the club on a tour through the Phillips Art Department and exhibited several of his paintings.

April 2-7 Miss Katherine Bales attended the Western Arts Association meeting in Houston with representatives from twelve states.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Katherine Bales and Mr. Eldon Ames the club furthered their activities in art appreciation.

Future medics make preparation for careers

Medical Arts Club had the privilege of continuing their Enid State School volunteer work this year. A Christmas and Easter party were given to the residents of Iris Cottage. Many students spent Saturdays in recreation with the children, and other students gained experience by working at St. Mary's Hospital. Students became more familiar with the medical profession by attending the Medical Career's Day in Oklahoma City. They were accompanied by the doctors' wives who sponsor them. Members gave their sponsors a reception and concluded the year with a picnic held in late spring to reminisce the year's activities.

Office runners carry bulletins, notices

Enid High School secretaries, Mrs. Florence Scott, Mrs. Dorothy Hess, and Mrs. Earlene Massie, worked diligently throughout the year to keep school records up to date. Mrs. Scott, personal secretary to Mr. Webb, kept the records for the seniors. Mrs. Hess kept the records on juniors and sophomores, and Mrs. Massie took care of the daily attendance records. Students, helping as office assistants one period a day, ran messages, picked up attendance slips and did various other tasks. When they were not working, they studied their lessons as though they were in a study hall.

Activity office helps tabulate finances

At one time or another, almost everyone at Enid High found his way to the Activity Office. Accounts of the various school organizations were kept there under the supervision of Mr. Charles Lynch, Mrs. Edna Newman, secretarial assistant, and students who volunteered to help during their study periods.

All sales of tickets for plays, concerts and athletic events were handled through the Activity Office. Payments on Activity tickets and QUILL Annuals were recorded and distributions made by office staff members. School supplies were also available as an extra convenience to everyone. These services combined to help keep E.H.S. running smoothly.

DE offers income, experience and education

Members of the E.H.S. chapter of Distributive Education Clubs of America gained recognition and practical experience while earning salaries and academic credit. D.E. was part of the Vocational Training program of the Enid School System. Students attended classes in the morning and worked during the afternoon at various supervised positions. The D.E. program helped members prepare for their future as responsible citizens and wage-earners.

Mr. Jerry Simmons sponsored the group which was named State Chapter of the Year. Mary Pearson served as president for 1965-66 and was named to the delegation representing Oklahoma at the national D.E.C.A. convention. D.E. students chose Glenda Batterman as their queen. Special guest speakers helped round out the year's activities for the club.

Latin club adopts new name, Phi Epsilon

"Let there be light!"

Phi Epsilon, Greek words meaning "Let there be light," was the name chosen by the members of this year's Latin Club. Formerly called the Vergilian Club, the members reorganized to increase their knowledge of Roman life and culture, and to encourage their study of Latin.

Phi Epsilon was composed of all students enrolled in Cicero, the third-year Latin class. During the year, bi-monthly meetings were held on Fridays during the class. Each member was responsible for one program, usually presented about ancient Roman life and culture.

Boys', Girls' staters enact mock democracy

Enid High School was represented by seventeen boys at the annual Boys' State Convention, and five girls at the Girls' State Convention. The participants were selected by their achievements in the fields of citizenship, leadership, scholarship, and participation in extra-curricular activities. The entire week was devoted to fun and education. Delegates participated in the operation of a mock government, including the establishment of all major activities, studying their functions as part of the main body, and gained a new respect for their citizenship.

Helpful librarians serve student body

Members of the Enid High Library Club helped to promote the friendly and pleasant atmosphere in the school library. These students worked as assistant librarians to aid Mrs. Rosamay Lynch and Mrs. Dorice Allen at the main desk checking in and out books, collecting fines and mending damaged books. Library club members also worked at the pass desk, kept the vertical file up to date and did research with the magazines on file.

During the course of the year the Library Club attended the Northern District Library Association Meeting at O.S.U. and the Oklahoma State Library Association Meeting at O.U. Library Club members from over the state were represented in a meeting held in Enid.

The club held several parties throughout the year at Christmas and Valentine's Day. Seniors were honored at a pizza party.

Club officers were David Hume, pres.; Roger Binford, vice-pres.; Shirley Jackson, sec., and Cynthia Litson and Pat Rylant, social chairman.

Aquaette show rated splashing success

A LAST-MINUTE change creates tense excitement before opening number for Aquaettes Carol Tagge, Mary Cushing, Dianna Goodpasture.

After a week of instruction, practice, and tryouts the new Aquaette members were chosen. Immediately afterwards the new and the old Aquaettes teamed together and began to work on a show that was to be presented at Open House. The members were divided into groups, and each group was responsible for writing their own number. Two group numbers and a duet number were chosen to represent the Aquaettes at a synchronized swimming clinic that was held at Norman, Oklahoma. All of these numbers received excellent ratings. Some of the girls also participated in individual competition.

The entrance number of the 1966 water show, "Wading with Webster," was a lively number with the Aquaettes dressed in pinafores and cut-off overalls. The finale was a romantic number in which the girls swam to "Misty." Highlighting the show was the crowning of the 1966 Aquaette Queen, Penny Painter. Her attendants were Millie Roberts and Dianna Goodpasture. Although it was hard work, the girls had fun and the show was a big splash!

GRA recreation forms physical fitness

Learning rules of the game, good sportsmanship, and the discipline of accepting penalties for rule infractions in the spirit of play, were all a part of the invaluable training that the girls in the Girls' Recreation Association received. Every Monday about fifty girls gave their time after school hours to perfect certain skills, but mostly to learn to get along with other people.

Each girl contributed in team sports of volleyball and basketball. Teams were formed and a tournament was held among the G.R.A. members. Mrs. Henrichs, sponsor of the group, chose ten girls to form an all-star team. Individual sports of table-tennis, badminton, tennis, and golf were also participated in actively by the members.

Special events of the year included the annual Christmas dinner and exchange. The girls who were extremely skilled in one of the individual sports attended a Play Day that was held in Stillwater. Also held in Stillwater was the Oklahoma State Tennis Tournament in which six of the girls competed. These girls also participated in the Alva Tennis Tournament.

During the year the girls received certain numbers of points for taking part in practice sessions and pursuing the sport that each was most interested in. At the end of the year the points were totaled, and the girls who had the most points were honored. A trophy was presented to the best G.R.A. member for a three-year period.

THE 1966 AQUAETTE Queen, Penny Painter, is crowned by student body president, Kurt Frantz at water show, "Wading with Webster."

Graphic Arts department receives new press

STEVE ROBINSON, Dwight Rich, Randy Johnson admire offset press.

TOP ROW: Waack, Matt; Taylor, Ken; Swinton, Charles; Kocher, John. BOTTOM ROW: Beard, Len; Glasser, Steve;

The Graphic Arts club, sponsored by Herbert Seem, met each Monday evening at 7:30. Mr. Seem had a full schedule, being one of the few teachers to have six class periods each day. The club kept abreast with the times in the world of ink by purchasing an offset press to print the Quill Weekly on. In printing the weekly, the students made the plates after the pages had been photographed downtown; a considerably simpler operation than in previous years..

The club printed the senior name cards, various items for the grade schools, junior highs, and high school.

Beginning students composed type by hand, learning the "case" and measuring progress by the number of lesson sheets completed. Trade printing students worked in the afternoon printing school forms. Advanced students learned to operate the Linotype.

RICHARD SCALING STRIKES out for pay-dirt in the wake of heavy Plainsmen blocking.

Determination paves the way to victory

What do you do for an encore after winning a state championship? Answer—win another! By re-electing themselves to the state AAA throne room, the Enid High School Plainsmen became the first successive champion in AAA.

The Plainsmen confronted a season schedule many teams would deem suicidal. Not one, but all of Enid's foes were trying to gun down the defending state champs. After weathering such an arduous test, it was obvious that the Plainsmen laurels were not a fluke.

Enid's Big Blue collected the first premium from its pre-season workouts by singeing the Ponca City Wildcats in the opening game. The Plainsmen spirit made shambles of the "Game of the Week." Steve Hamil's performance won him "Back of the Week" honors.

Against Putnam City, the Plainsmen unveiled the most awesome weapon in their arsenal, the defensive platoon. Bone-crushing tackles won the Big Blue's defenders the nickname of The Headhunters. With the win, Enid emerged as pace setter in state AAA ratings.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT RUNS rampant with entire town catching "state championship" fever.

Student support fuels team's efforts

Enid's next two opponents, Shawnee and Douglass, tried in vain to unseat the Plainsmen.

Homecoming saw the Midwest City Bombers as guests in Plainsmen stadium. Midwest City's desire and "Beat Enid" jerseys, caught Enid by surprise, and handed them their first setback in what was billed as "The Game of the Week."

The Plainsmen then caught their second wind, sailing over U. S. Grant and Northwest Classen to keep their conference hopes alive.

Enid's offense electrified John Marshall in a crucial tilt, then rubbed out Capitol Hill in the regular season finale, to again train their sights on the state championship.

Sporting jerseys emblazoned "Not Again," the Plainsmen met Midwest City in a re-match for the district title. Their assumption proved true, for the Big Blue emerged victorious.

Enid advanced into the playoff by sealing a lid on Lawton Thanksgiving Day, then concluded its season like it had begun, by scorching Ponca City. This time it was for the state crown. Ditto—Plainsmen did it again!

LARRY KIEFER, RON Stephans, Les Williams, Greg Graham, and Terry Bentley don "A" jerseys.

PLAINSMEN PAUSE after tough Lawton game to receive the victor's spoils.

Competition builds character, success

Teamwork was the key to success—teamwork where each player held mutual respect and admiration for his fellow teammate. Fifteen seniors captured post-season awards.

Ken Mendenhall received All-American and All-State "Lineman of the Year" honors. All-Conference members were Doug Karns, Ken Mendenhall, Mike Meyers, Kurt Frantz, Phil Lamb, Larry Mourer, and Steve Hamil. All-Conference honorable mention were Richard Scaling, Bruce Graham, Charles Axe, Mike House, Garry Gregory, Bruce Newton, Jim Nichols and Clifford Cox.

A good football team and excellent coaching go hand in glove. Such was the case with the 1965 state champions. Coach Alvin Duke, in his first year at the helm of the Plainsmen, earned the "Coach of the Year" award. Two other new additions to the varsity coaching staff, Bob Greenlaw and Jesse Page molded line and defensive play, leaving offense to Duke.

Highlander Coaches Floyd Winfield, Bob Banister and Tom Niles shaped future Plainsmen with a 7-2 "B" team win season.

PLAINSMEN COACH Dusty Eby praises jubilant student body for their loyal support and renews the team's promise for a victorious season.

Seven seniors and seven juniors fill roster

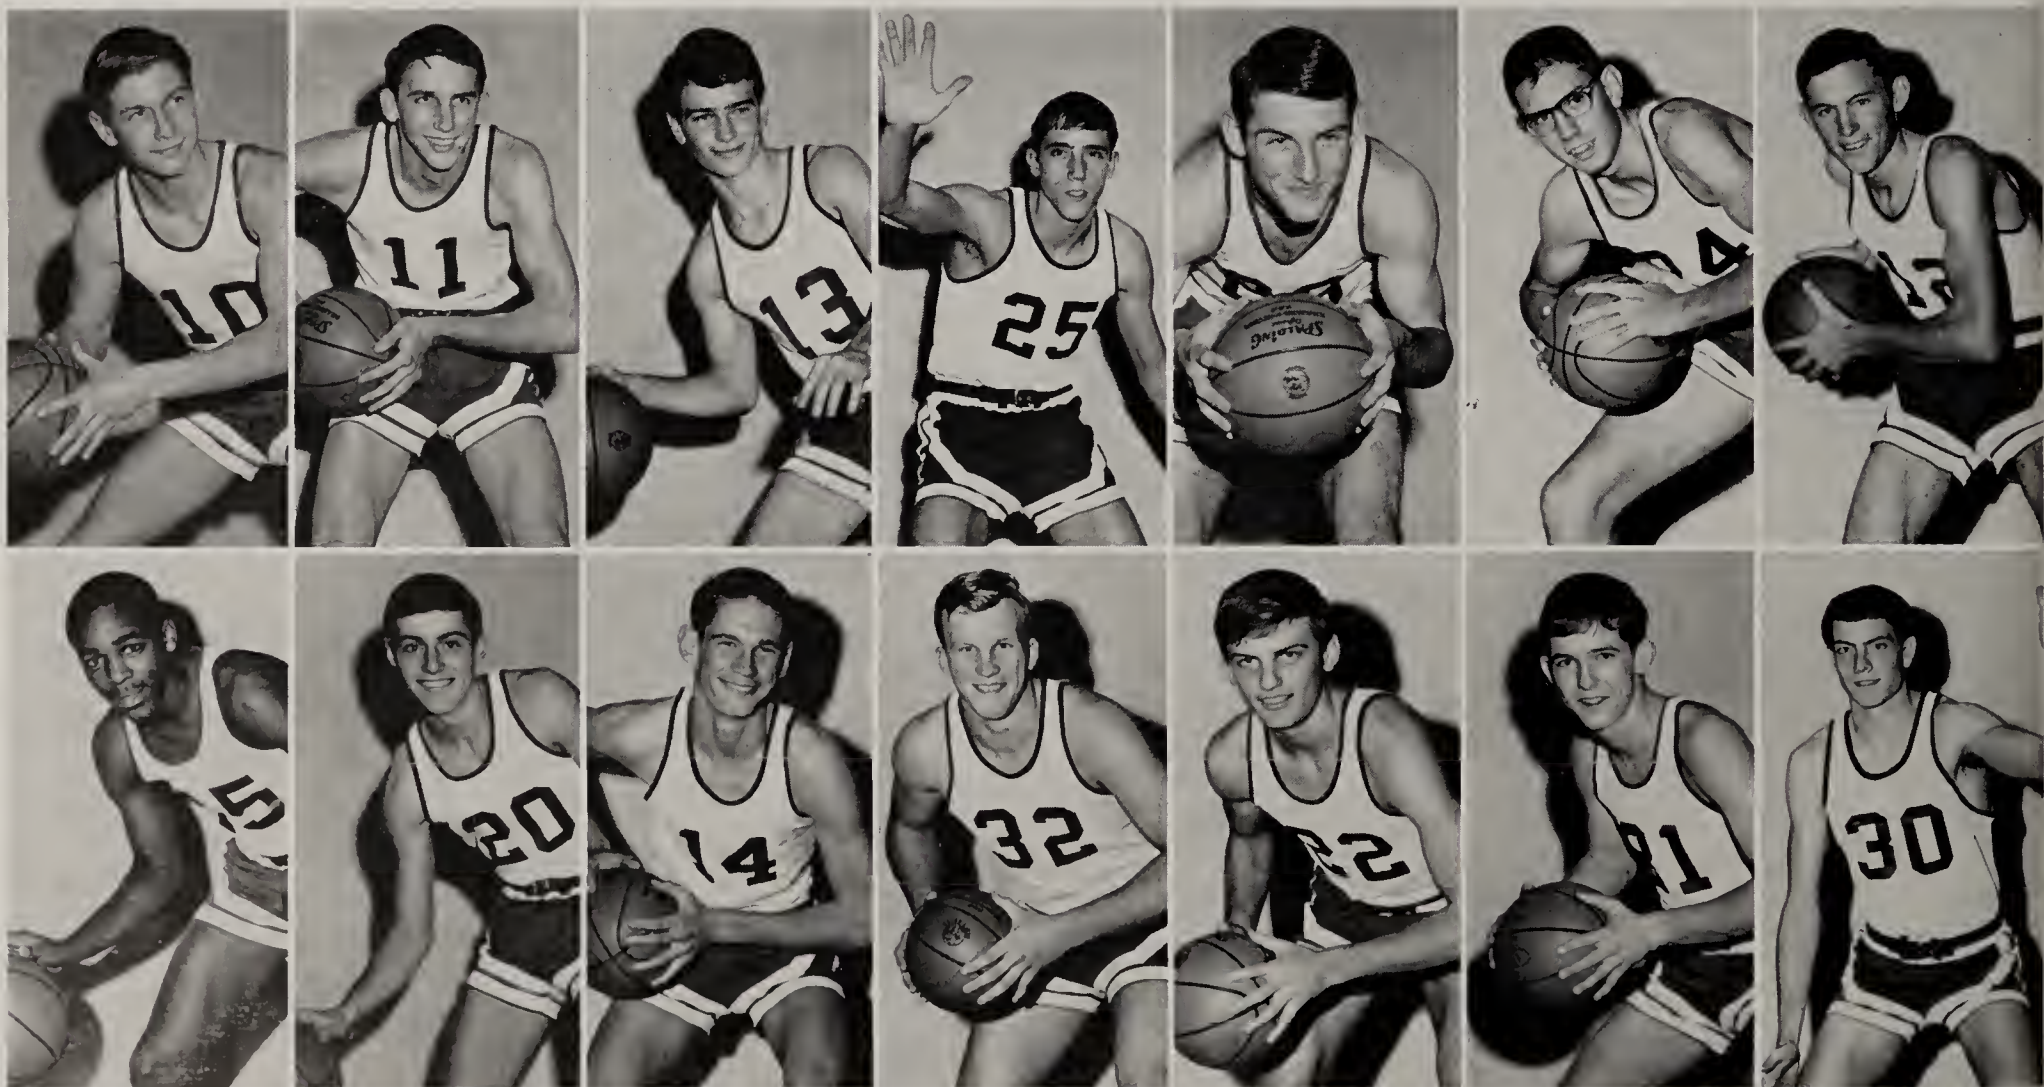

PRECISION TEAMWORK COUPLED with unconquerable spirit and drive makes these Enid starters an undefeatable force to all opponents.

The Enid Roundballers began their season with second and third places in the Grant and Stillwater invitational tournaments. Victorious over Ponca City before Christmas, the team posted a pre-season record of 13-10.

The upperclasses were more than equally represented with seven seniors and six juniors filling the roster. Seniors compiling points for the team were: Mike Longley, Gary Boyle, Bobby Newsom, Allie Paine, Doyle Newman, Gary Moore, and Tommy Clark. Junior cagers were Dale Holt, Mike Wright, Bob Bridges, Alan Oliver, Steve Graham, and Lynn Goodman.

Gary Moore, Enid's 6'6" senior center, racked up a total of 286 points to lead the Plainsmen in scoring. Following Moore closely with a game average of 12.2 points, was senior Gary Boyle. Enid rebound record was captured by Moore, who compiled 176 rebounds.

Tragedy struck the Plainsmen team in the early part of the season. Bobby Newsom, senior letterman, began the season as a promising scorer, but due to illness, was required to take temporary leave of absence.

BOTTOM ROW: Holt, Dale; Wright, Mike; Garrison, Ron; Bridges, Bob; Oliver, Alan; Graham, Steve; Goodman, Lynn.

THE ENID PLAINSMEN gave Northwest Classen a sound smack! to break a seven-year losing streak with the Knights 49-40.

Enid roundballers defeat the undefeatable

One of the highlights of Enid's 1965-66 basketball season was their victory over the defending state champions, Northwest Classen in Convention Hall. The Knights won the Class AA state championship two years in a row and defeated Enid seven games straight. The Plainsmen took control from the beginning of the game and outscored the Northwest Classen Knights in all quarters with the exception of the second. In the second quarter the Knights scored 15 points to take them into half time with the score knotted at 20 to 20. From that point on, the game belonged to Enid who outscored Northwest 29 to 20 in the second half to make the final score 49 to 40.

The Shawnee Wolves, possessing superior height, were in top contention for the Midstate crown. At Shawnee, the Plainsmen defeated the Wolves by a score of 48-42 and at Convention Hall, in the second scheduled game with Shawnee, the score was a lopsided 60-46 as Enid soundly gave them a thrashing. Boyle, team captain, racked up the top score of 20 points for this game, and was second only to Gary Moore in total points. Bob Newsom was third top scorer in the Shawnee game with 8 points. In spite of an illness which caused him to miss 12 games, Newsom was fifth in total points on the team and top shooting percentage of the regulars.

Juniors seeing action during the season were Dale Holt, Mike Wright, and Ronnie Garrison. The excellent work done by these juniors indicated a promising season next year.

ENID TEAM CAPTAIN Gary Boyle takes a mighty slap at the basketball during the Shawnee game allowing Enid to beat the Wolves 60-46.

Sophomores lead Cross Country Team

Enid High's Cross Country Team, under the direction of Mr. Stanley Jenkins, raced into recognition with a host of promising sophomores as well as their reliable juniors and seniors. They split even in their dual meets, but raked in third in Midstate conference and scored fifth in the U. S. Grant invitational out of a possible thirty contending schools.

The outstanding runner of the season was sophomore Ronnie Major. Ronnie scored first in both the Midstate meet and the State Oklahoma Baptist University invitational.

Cross-country running consisted of long-distance running and endurance. Under the expert leadership of Stanley Jenkins, this fine team charted a victorious season.

COACH JENKINS, Mark Boler and Rick Moon cheer with Plainsmen Pride as Ronnie Major makes victorious stride for the finish line.

CROSS COUNTRYERS Ron Major, A. K. Manahan, Paul Cole, Jim Curtis and Dan Mauk compare meet scores with coach Mr. Stanley Jenkins.

Baseballers swing into successful season

EXAMINING A NEW bat are players Doug Karns, Scott Van Krevelen, Mike Longley and Cecil Johnson.

The Enid High Baseball team began their season with wins over Ponca City, Shidler and Northwest Classen who was the top-rated team in the Mid-State Conference.

Coaches Dusty Eby and Jim Nelson had approximately forty boys on the Plainsmen and Highlander squads. The Plainsmen faced a rebuilding year with only four returning lettermen. These key men were Doug Karns, Mike Longley, Cecil Johnson and Scott Van Krevelen. The team centered around experienced players and last year's Highlanders who finished with a 12-1 season. Highlanders who made the jump to the top were Rod Cook, Mike Wright, Dennis Wilson, Dale Holt, Gary Moore and Jim Benson.

The 1965 Plainsmen Baseball Team finished third in the state with a 20 win and 12 loss record.

Cindermen spurt ahead for finish line

SPIRITED ENID cindermen spring forward to make that finish before their formidable opponents.

Plainsmen cindermen, coached by Alvin Duke, entered meets at Ft. Worth, Lawton, Bartlesville, Oklahoma City, (winning the latter two); and Amarillo Tri-State meet with teams from Oklahoma, Texas, and New Mexico competing. They also hosted the Enid Invitational which grew from 6 teams competing in 1964 to 37 schools who participated this year. The thinclads also ran away with team honors in the meet. Coach Duke also added two new meets to the schedule this year. They were the Enid Decathlon, which was for Enid junior and senior high athletes, and the Enid Decathlon Invitational for high school teams from across the state.

The chief reason for a successful season was the experience that the boys had received from previous years. Returning lettermen were Ricky Moon, Mike Myers, Kenneth Harrison, Bruce Newton, Bobby Newsom and Paul Dunbar.

Mile relay team composed of David Dawes, Paul Dunbar, Bruce Newton, and Kenneth Harrison, proved to anyone who watched them that speedsters of Enid High could accomplish anything they set out to achieve—namely STATE.

Swimmers dive into a record season

The 1966 Enid Mermen began their season with a splash, a new coach, and a hopeful outlook for a winning season!

Twenty-five boys donned the traditional blue tank suits this year with two managers lending assistance in every possible way.

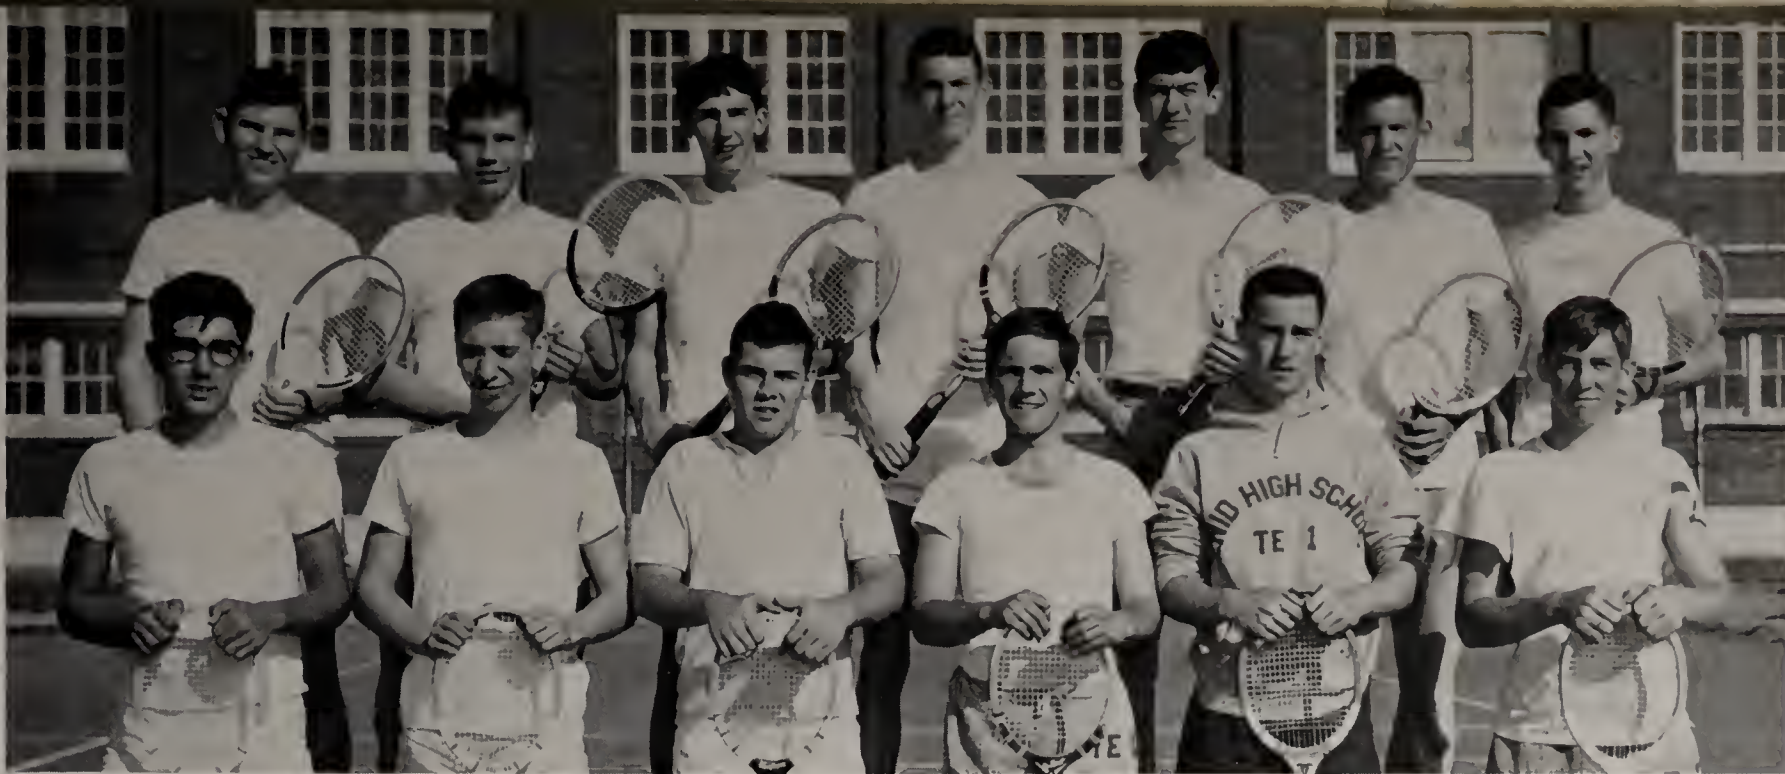

New coach, Bob Banister, made an impressive showing with his new team. Banister came to Enid High with three years of teaching experience and a forceful drive to win.

Records were set this year, and goals were met. The Mermen racked up a 6-1 season which will go down as the best in three years. High point in the season was Enid's slamming victory over Harding 50-45. Drive, ambition and leadership brought a victorious season.

TOP ROW: Baustian, Ronnie; Trobaugh, John; Beard, Dennis; Baker, Bob; Rylander, Kip. BOTTOM ROW: Mendenhall, Tim; Buchanan, Brad.

Coach Tom Niles drilled the tennis team long, hard hours throughout the spring to turn them into an impressive group. Matches were held in Alva, Burlington, Ponca City, Putnam City, Stillwater, Aline, Pawnee, and the Midstate tournament at Capitol Hill.

Returning lettermen of the tennis team were Gary Boyle, Steve Frantz, Dan Mauk, Greg Schultz, and Bob Ward.

The Enid High School Golf team had a successful year under the direction of Coach Floyd Winfield. With only three returning lettermen, Dennis Beard, Tim Mendenhall and Bob Baker, the golf team faced tough competition with the Midstate tournament at Shawnee climaxing the season.

The Enid High Lettermen's Club consisted of all students who had "lettered" in a school sponsored sport. However, just "lettering" did not mean that one was eligible to join. A letterman wishing to join was first pledged a week during which he showed his enthusiasm and desire to become a member. He also showed his readiness to be of service to members, as well as perform certain tasks assigned. At the end of the week the pledge attended initiation night at the school, where he was inducted into the club, but first he had to go through a few activities to allow him to display his courage, stamina, and coordination. After this little party, the pledge became a new member.

This year's Lettermen's Club officers were Ken Mendenhall, pres.; Doug Karns, v.pres.; Garry Gregory, sec.-treas.; and Steve Hamil and Bruce Newton, sergeants at arms.

My father Gene McConkay in 1910 made the first pictures for the Quill Annual, through the years we have made three generations of graduates from Enid High School.

The name Photo By McConkay has stood out in the halls of Enid High through 50 years of fine Photography.

We endeavor to handle each customer as a separate and distinct "Study" not simply as a person who wants a picture, that's the reason why "McConkay pictures are Different".

I want to express my sincere Thanks to Mr. Webb and his office staff, Ruth Scott, Faculty and members of school body, for time and patience putting up with me.

Mr. Allie Paine, Sr., Coach Dusty Eby and Mr. Jack Webb discuss basketball techniques following a game.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS...

The QUILL editors are deeply grateful to Miss Ruth Scott, QUILL sponsor, whose patience, undaunted leadership, and hard work furthered this QUILL's completion. This is her last year as sponsor after twenty-seven years of successful annuals, and we wish to express on behalf of the previous staffs our sincerest thanks to a great sponsor and a wonderful individual.

We would also like to thank the faculty for their help, guidance, and support; the student body for their interest; and the staff for their dedicated efforts.

Mrs. Lee Ida Boyle, who after twenty-one years of faithful service, is retiring. The school expresses its deepest appreciation to her for teaching typing and general business through the years. We shall always remember her for her patience and kindness.

The QUILL staff

Retirement marks service for four

Seeing that the entire nervous system of EHS ran smoothly, was the job of Mr. Fred Raikes, head custodian, for fourteen years.

Mr. Raikes joined the staff in 1952, immediately gaining deep respect and admiration of all that he served. His pleasant, human qualities added to his knowledge of all things mechanical and electrical, won't be replaced.

Spanish history and the beauty of the Spanish language was brought into vivid, realistic color by Mrs. Lena Mac Crawford.

Prior to her resignation, Mrs. Crawford served on the staff at Emerson Junior High and Enid High School for ten years. She dedicated her career to the education of young people.

Like a piece of clay, many young artists were formed and molded under the careful, kind guidance of Miss Katherine Bales.

Miss Bales was art instructor and art supervisor of the Enid Public School System for 33 years. During these years, great artists were developed.

Like the precision work of her students, Miss Bales made her students her greatest work of art.

Students went from boys to men—but none without the capable assistance of Mr. Myrl Kirk.

Mr. Kirk reigned over the woodwork shop in Enid High for 35 of his 43 years of teaching. Destinies of many young men were determined by the craft learned under kind-hearted Mr. Kirk.

Charlie. All been one whole of a year. I we've had a lot of fun
 in that Bks. giving us a little hell. I hope we have more good times this summer and when we come from school. You're a cool guy and of the hell. raising breed a little. I know you'll have great times in college & grad.
 Best of luck - Charlie

Has it been a pleasure knowing you. I and his foundation 4th hour Great Books. Kind of you added a little extra to bit of color to the daily routine.
 That made my year a little more fun. Of course you have other talents than book making,
 like drinking and stuff too.
 Don't get me wrong you are a well developed personality.
 Good luck in the future.

Charles -
 I couldn't begin to tell you how much fun I've had knowing you these past few years.
 You're one of the neatest boys
 I know & you'll go far because you've really got a lot of ability. I know you'll have fun at O.V. and maybe I'll see you again someday!
 Be good!!!
 Love
 Sallie

Fox -
 GOD bless you!
 AMEN...
 Rev. Nichols

Charles -
 You are really a wonderful person and one of the most unique people I've ever known.
 You are truly a guy
 and full of personality that makes for a great friend and one of the neatest people around.
 (Maddigan)

It's Charles
 I have a lot of hope for you

No a real great
 guy. It's been a lot of these past 5 years.
 I will always remember
 you. Glen B.

Charles -
 I can't tell you how much fun I had in Norman at the parties.
 I'll never forget it!
 I hope you have a great time at Norman next year, Charles.
 I know you will. You're a great guy and I want to wish you lots of luck -

Love,
 Claudia

Charles -
 It's been great these first years. We've had so many good times that I couldn't even start to name them. The lake and river runs. etc. This summer should prove amusing as we will have sufficient funds to finance our various amusements. Best of luck at C.V. next year. I know you'll do well. Don't forget the party exchanges in the spring to come. Stay out of trouble unless you're with me.

Charles -
 I hope you have a great time at Norman next year.
 I know you will.
 You're a great guy and I want to wish you lots of luck -
 Love,
 Claudia

Charles

You are a real
- neat guy who I remember from 7th Grade English.

Lots of luck in the future!

Jan Wernack -

Charles
Well since the 7th grade
we've had a helluva lot of good times. Times like Kennedy's, Margaret Ann's, the Bird Sanctuary,
Ft. Worth & Lettermen's.
We've been good friends & I hope we remain friends for a long time. Good luck to

AXE; well ol' hole I guess we're gonna' make it outta' the cracker box. Sure was a hell of a strain though.

Get what you want from the bit world and don't forget that stuff as every body says... Like as an' other stuff too... Stay and tuff you greedy pile and have fun in College

A Friend,

Charlie,

Well, it been a long haul but it looks like it's almost time for the Cap

and gown bit.

Good Luck at O.U.
and if I ever need a lawyer I call

on you.

J. D. Davidson

Charlie -
Well I guess we finally made it
and it's been a lot of fun your luck
best year at O.U.
where I'm sure will have many great times

Bob Mober

Charles - I'm really enjoyed knowing you all these years.
I guess it's because I look through to the good inside.
You're a fine guy and I know you have a great future
ahead of you

Best of luck
at O.U. Happy
